Some New Euler Functions

Gary L. Mullen

September 29, 2017

We will discuss several what I believe are new Euler functions. The first will be a generalization of the usual Euler function from elementary number theory. The second will be a generalization of the polynomial Euler function defined on the ring of polynomials over a finite field.

Each new Euler function will lead to an unsolved problem.