

Two paintings of Hilchenbach

Adolph Kleb (1860-1938) was a blacksmith by profession; only a few of his paintings remain.

"Blick von Herrnberg" (1908). In the foreground is the ``Ferndorf".
oil-painting in the Hilchenbach city museum

"Blick vom Mühlenseifen" (after 1926). Oil painting in the city hall.

These pictures of Hilchenbach is taken from: Elkar, Rainer,
Menschen - Häuser- Schicksale / Hilchenbach zwischen Monarchie, Diktatur und Republik, Kreuztal, 1992 [borrowed from Northwestern University Library].